Visitors and members' contributions to the website

We are pleased to receive your contributions to the website (these include tips, notices for noticeboard and second hand sale page, chat and discussion groups, product reviews and anywhere else that your contributions are included on the website). We point out that the website is international and is accessible throughout the world and that by contributing in any way to the website, as above, you are consenting to the publication of your contribution on baby weaning and to linked baby weaning sites. Baby Weaning reserves the right to edit any contributions where necessary.

Please note that there is a risk that any photographs posted on any babyweaning website may be downloaded and electronically altered by another user of that site. Whilst this is prohibited by the terms of babyweaning's copyright permission notice, members should be aware of this risk before submitting photographs for publication on the site.

Chat Rooms/Discussion Groups

The chat room service is intended to facilitate communication between registered babyweaning users and the views expressed do not necessarily reflect those of Baby Weaning. The posting of defamatory comment or material that infringes the rights of others has no place in such discussions, and will not be permitted. Although Baby Weaning is not responsible for comments included in this area, it reserves the right to review postings and delete them if they are not appropriate and the user's right to access the chat room may be rescinded. Users should also be aware that such activities may subject them to civil actions or criminal penalties.

Featured Products

Although all advertising is expected to conform to the appropriate advertising standards, inclusion of such material in this site does not constitute a guarantee or endorsement of the quality or value of any products or of the claims made for them by the manufacturer. Users are advised to verify product information with the manufacturer.
